

Heels That Heal – 31st October 2009 – Westfield, London

Sign up and step up to be part of a world record attempt, shop till you drop, rub shoulders with the stars AND raise money for Wellbeing of Women.

At 10am on 31st October we hope to see thousands of women do a one mile lap of Westfield in their high heels. Walkers will get a wristband entitling them to a range of discounts in many stores. It costs just £5 to take part – register here today.

News from Wellbeing of Women

An Action Packed September

September was our Healthy Woman Campaign month and we kicked off with the Adidas 5k Women's Challenge in Hyde Park on 6th September with a big team walking, running or jogging the distance.

This was followed by the WoW Show – The Essential Women's Health Event on 19th September where we offered the general public seminars on a wide range of topics (more info here).

On 27th September Fabulous Magazine launched the Heels That Heal campaign aiming to raise £500,000 for Wellbeing of Women (more here)

And finally on 30th September our Volunteer Conference saw members from our Branch Networks and fundraising committees come together to exchange ideas and here how the money they raise has been spent.
