If I have ticked the box headed 'Gift Aid? ✓', I confirm that I am a UK Income or Capital Gains taxpayer. I have read this statement and want Wellbeing of Women to reclaim tax on the donation detailed below, given on the date shown. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax in that tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference. I understand the charity will reclaim 25p of tax on every £1 that I have given.

1. If your declaration covers donations you may make in the future:
o please notify Wellbeing of Women if you change your name or address while the declaration is still in force
o you can cancel the declaration at any time by notifying Wellbeing of Women – it will then apply to donations made by you on or after the date of cancellation or such later date as you may specify.
2. You must pay an amount of income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that Wellbeing of Women reclaims on your donations in the tax year (currently 25p for each £1 you give)

4. If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self Assessment tax return.
5. If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, ask Wellbeing of Women, or you can ask your local tax office for leaflet IR65 Giving to charity by individuals.
